

The Wheat Data Interoperability guidelines will be maintained by the Wheat Data Interoperability Working Group in collaboration with the WheatIS (Wheat Information System) expert working group. A steering group composed of the chairs + representatives of the WheatIS + representatives of the adopters will meet twice a year, online or face to face, to revise the recommendations and discuss the actions needed to increase their adoption.