Describe the problems arising from the current state of play – scattered information put out by PIDS providers, national policy makers, organizations like EOSC and RDA groups, and others – and introduce the idea of an information exchange to address this problem. If there is time, raise questions of how to bring this about – what organizations could help support with funding, what organizations are necessary collaborators because they will need to contribute information, what form could the exchange take, where could it be ‘hosted’, etc.	15 min	Both IG co-chairs
This part of the meeting will be dedicated to a brainstorming session where participants share ideas about key areas of information about PIDs that’s relevant to adopters, followed by a categorization and	40 min	Both IG co-chairs prioritization exercise where these topics are arranged into a map/table of content based on which the “PID central” can be built. We will include discussion of how the work of the PIDS in Tools group could be incorporated into the National PIDS Strategies work and vice versa.
